IT'S THE REAL THING

The Coca-Cola Bottling Company

Greencastle, Indiana

ONCE UPON

a time, in a not-so-far-off distant land called Greendingle, there lived a little boy who wore a green beany with a yellow D on it. He was lonely, overworked, and had all sorts of imagined neuroses.

Poor boy. He wanted to be cool but he just didn't know how. Then suddenly, his fairy godmother or fraternity father or paternalistic professor appeared on the scene and whispered the secret of coolness in his ear.

Now that lad is called "Super Beany," is the tiddledy winks champ of his living unit, and can recite the first two rows of names below the pictures in his treasured ADS book.

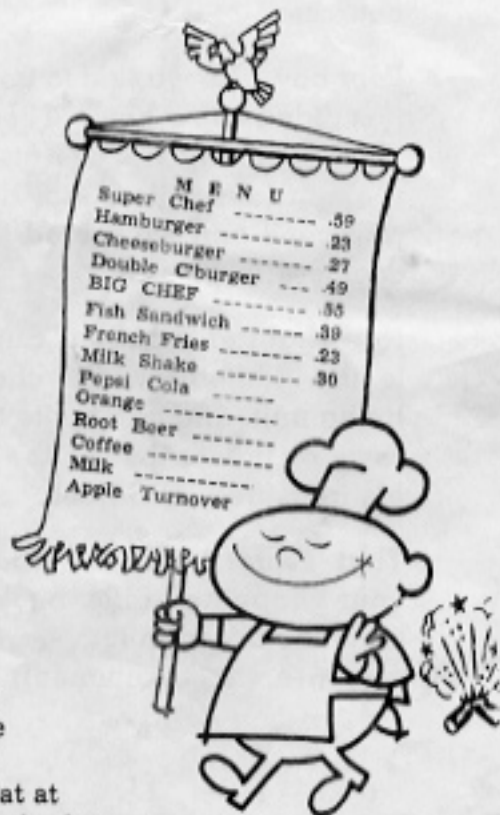

That secret of being cool? Do all your shopping—gifts, books, supplies, records, ad infinitum — at that ever-cool (it's air-conditioned!)
